Tax Rap For Labor?

The U.S. Press Association reports that a tempest is swirling through Capitol corridors over what one Washington newsman dubbed "the only unmentioned tax loophole"—the tax exempt status enjoyed by Big Labor.

Involved in the tempest is a bipartisan group of Senate Finance Committee members including Paul Fannin (R-Ariz.), Carl Curtis (R-Neb.), Harry Byrd (D-Va.) and Senate "Watchdog" John Williams (R-Del.).

The Finance Committee hearings on the House passed tax reform bill is in the interest of tax justice. The bill taxes investments made by churches and foundations, and other tax-exempt organizations. It also hits the tax privileges enjoyed by the oil interests and imposes heavy penalties on any spending by private, voluntary foundations for political purposes.

Yet, the highly favored tax status of unions is preserved.

As one might expect, nobody has yelled louder or longer than the AFL-CIO bosses about tax "loopholes." The AFL-CIO Executive Council, U.S. Press says, went so far as to urge the Senate to "guard against attempts of lobbyists to preserve and widen their special interest loopholes."

Some critics, including the National Right to Work Committee are now asking: "What about Big Labor's own tax loophole?"

Labor unions are private, tax-exempt, have vast millions of dollars invested in unrelated businesses. One leading analyst estimates that half of organized labor's $3 billion annual income comes from investments in unrelated (and untaxed) business—and spends tens of millions of compulsory dues dollars annually for political purposes, in open violation of the Federal Corrupt Practices Act.

Why are they accorded this special treatment by Congress?

The reason could be the use of compulsory dues dollars for political purposes.

An estimated $60 million was poured out last year in a vain effort to defeat a presidential candidate the union bosses called a "disaster."

The figure exceeds $200 million when you take into account state, local, and municipal elections and the vast millions in indirect costs for such things as union staff time, "educational" pamphlets, telephone banks and computerized get-out-the-vote drives. Joseph Rauh told the Supreme Court when he was general counsel for the United Auto Workers: "When a union member pays his dues, he has paid for his political action."

Many members of Congress are indebted to labor bosses for the campaign support provided by union organizations of wage earners who may be opposed to the candidates chosen by the union hierarchy.

The National Right to Work Committee says it hopes "that the Senate hearings will lead to the removal of the tax exempt status of any private organization using compulsory dues dollars for political purposes. Such an action will rectify a basic injustice involving both labor law and the tax law. It will contribute greatly to a fairer distribution of the tax load and will most certainly gain the applause of all fair-minded citizens by demonstrating that Congress is willing to deal equitably with even the most politically powerful special interest lobby."

Jurors Are Human, Too

Police and law nomenclature for lewd and lascivious conduct is L&L.

A L&L case is discussed in the upcoming issue of COUNTY LINE.

COUNTY LINE is the monthly publication of the San Diego County Sheriff's Association. It is edited by Sheriff's Deputy Robert Torbett.

In the L&L article, it was related by the writer how a very proper and sedate woman on the witness stand was being questioned about improper advances made to her by the defendant.

The District Attorney asked her what the man said to her. She flushed and told the judge that she couldn't repeat the vulgar words and asked if she might write the words instead.

With his approval, she wrote the words on a slip of paper and handed the paper to the judge. He passed it to the District Attorney, who passed it to the jury members.

As each juror read it, he passed the slip of paper to the next person.

A male juror was dozing when a young, female juror sitting next to him nudged him awake and handed him the slip of paper.

He read the note, looked at the young lady, smiled and put the note in his pocket.

Student Union To Stir Helix Awareness

A new club designed to promote student awareness has emerged at Helix.

Progressive Student Union (PSU) is designed to make the student more aware of what is happening around him. The club is a place where a person can go to express his opinions.

According to Terry Oden-dahl, Helix senior, founder and coordinator, the organization now is composed mainly of liberals but more conservatives are being sought so that all opinions can be represented.

PSU meets Mondays after school, every other week. Dues are not required. Advising the new club is Robert T. Woods, Helix civics teacher.

PSU is made up of various committees working with two coordinators.

Included among the committees are: the Prayer for the

Grove Property Owner Says Sups Are 'Thieves'

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A Lemon Grove man is so upset by the prohibition of parking on Massachusetts ave. that he has all but accused the members of the County Board of Supervisors of being inhuman, thieves, or at best, ill-informed.

Franz Joseph Schnaubelt, 4137 Massachusetts ave., wrote about the recent prohibition of parking on the street between University and Hoffman avenues, a location where there have been many accidents because of a curve in the road.

The supervisors on Oct. 17 acted on the recommendation of the traffic advisory committee to stop parking on both sides of the street.

The committee had suggested hearing from the adjacent residents, but the board acted without setting a time for discussion.

The street, according to the latest traffic count, is carrying more than 14,000 cars a day.

The board recently did hear from an unhappy citizen living on Sweetwater road whose parking on the street has been taken away for a left-turn pocket.

At that time, board members expressed their sympathy, but also their feeling that the county is under no real obligation to provide curbside parking at general county expense for private residents.

As to the board being inhuman, Schnaubelt said his wife is ill, but that friends who want to visit her must park about a quarter of a mile away. This is cruel and inhuman punishment, he said.

As to the board members being thieves, he said: "By this action, the board, in effect, are stealing these (39) properties — since by law, they are making themselves the only potential buyers at any price they care to offer."

He further said the supervisors, in this action, were ill-informed or otherwise totally unaware of the reality of this situation.

"I cannot believe," Schnaubelt's letter reads, "that you would impose on anyone in the community you were elected to foster and maintain, conditions you would not tolerate with respect to your residence, or the street which serves it."

"I cannot believe that you would knowingly single out 39 property owners from all of the property owners in San Diego County for peculiar, punitive punishment."

Two rescue calls were answered during the week, both on Nov. 4: Ethel Russ, 89, of 3042 Washington, given oxygen for illness; and Suren Dunn, 65, of 8357 Palm ave., given oxygen for a possible heart attack, and later went to a hospital.

UCS at 70% As End Nears

The United Crusade moved toward the home stretch with a total of nearly $3,900,000 reported by General chairman William E. Quirk.

With the campaign's large firms division leading the way, the annual drive has reached 70 percent of the $5,550,000 goal for 1969.

Spring Valley was reported with 64 per cent of its goal and Lemon Grove had 60 per cent.

Chairman Quirk expressed guarded optimism over this week's results. "The results to date indicate that our goal is within reach. But less than two weeks remain before the drive ends on November 19."

"If we are to reach our goal by this date, it will require a great effort by all campaigners to finish their solicitation."

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department answered one fire call for the week of Nov. 3-10. The lone call was to the Jack-in-the-Box Drive Through on Broadway, on Nov. 8. Cause of a flame was in the vent in the kitchen and damage is under investigation. The fire occurred prior to the place of business opening for the day's business.

College Board OK's Relaxed Restraint On Outside Material

Grossmont College trustees Monday night adopted a compromise 30-day interim policy to cover new legislation on controversial issues.

The temporary policy is the combination of a student proposal and one drafted by the Campus Political activities committee.

It is based on legislation that went into effect recently relaxing laws that forbid distribution of materials on controversial matters on junior college campuses.

Board members ran into difficulties on the Political Activities Committee recommendation when an alternate proposal was submitted by the Student Senate. Gary Hjelm representing the students, said that the draft by the Political Activities Committee was unacceptable to the students because they did not have a hand in its preparation.

However, trustee William C. Faulwetter objected to the student proposal, saying that the student draft "puts an emphasis on all the wrong things." Faulwetter was a member of the committee that prepared the first recommendation.

The compromise suggested by Dr. Robert N. Burnham called for substitution of the committee recommendation. It will be in effect for 30 days and was approved by trustees on the proviso that students be given an opportunity to work out an alternate recommendation after consulting with the committee.

The section substituted in the student recommendation reads:

"Materials which circulate freely in the community may be distributed on campus as long as there is no interference with the instructional program, such materials do not advocate illegal acts, and are in accord with the governing board's right to regulate time, place and manner so as to protect classwork, preserve order and guard the rights of others."

The reunion party will be held at the "Village Assembly" of Vacation Village Hotel, in Mission Bay, on Saturday from 8 to 1:15, and will feature the music of Jon Bea-man and The Showmen for listening and dancing, songs popular in 1959, as well as the modern sounds of today.

Presbyterian Executive Resigns

LOS ANGELES — Dr. Carroll L. Shuster, chief administrative officer for the United Presbyterian Church in nine Southern California counties and Hawaii, Tuesday announced his resignation, effective Dec. 31, in order to accept a call to become executive of the Synod of Florida on Jan. 1.

Dr. Shuster has been related to Presbyterianism here since 1950, when he was first named administrative assistant. In 1952 he was elected executive secretary of both the Synod of California, Southern Area, and the Presbytery of Los Angeles.

He held this dual post until Dec. 31, 1967, when both agencies were dissolved, and he was named executive of the Synod of Southern California upon its organization Jan. 1, 1968.

During Dr. Shuster's 19-year incumbency, 73 new congregations were established within the bounds of the synod, these churches listing 36,437 communicant members at the close of 1968.

He is a former president of the Council of Churches in Southern California, and served the council as chairman of its Commission on Church and Race for three years following the 1965 disturbances in Watts.

In 1964 he was named Ecumenical Churchman of the Year by the Church Federation of Los Angeles (now the Los Angeles Council of Churches), and he was recently honored by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors for distinguished service in the field of racial relations and minority rights.

Dr. Shuster's new office will be in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. The United Presbyterian Synod of Florida is comprised of 110 churches, while the Presbyterian Church U.S. (Southern) lists 234 congregations in its Synod of Florida.

Negotiations are currently under way for a merger between the two denominations.

The World Council of Churches says "it would be wrong for every North American child to have an electric toothbrush before every Latin American child has a daily bottle of milk."

LETTERS

Breitbard Due More Credit, Says Reader

Dear Editor:

I am writing in response to your editorial concerning the acquisition of the San Diego Sports Arena by the county.

I feel it contained considerable merit as to the reasons for taking over the facility. However, I would like to interject my thoughts in one area on which you did not comment; that of the current owner, Bob Breitbard.

I feel that the operation of the Arena by Mr. Breitbard is the finest of its type anywhere. Every employee with whom I have ever been in contact has always conducted himself in only the best manner, completely courteous and efficient. This certainly cannot be said of other sports operations locally.

I think the reason for this is the insistence of such a policy by Mr. Breitbard. In him you find a man, raised in San Diego, who held a dream of operating professional franchises for basketball and ice hockey for many years, long before the money men from other locales found that San Diego was a place to set up shop for their enterprises.

Mr. Breitbard, of his own funds, has given to the citizens of our area the excellent Hall of Champions in Balboa Park. It contains many moments of sports accomplishments by San Diego athletes which help the area gain national fame. In addition, he recognized these achievements in a more tangible way through establishment of the Breitbard Athletic Foundation which also earned immeasurable publicity for the city.

He conducted an annual charity football game for many years and donated much of the proceeds to deserving groups, mostly those which aided in conquering ailments of the young.

The efforts which he undertook to gain sports franchises in San Diego and to build the Arena are far too numerous to mention. The mere fact that he was able to convince cynical league officials that the little city below Los Angeles would support hockey and basketball teams and that he was able to obtain financial backing in addition to using much of his own money is a credit to his character and ability.

I think in the happenings of today's politics it could have been predicted something such as this would occur. Politicians virtually gave both the Chargers and Padres carte blanche upon their arrival in San Diego. Ridiculous low rent terms and many other concessions were made to both these groups. But to a local resident who has given its citizens as first rate product, there is nothing.

This letter is not to infer that Mr. Breitbard is to be pitied. He is a businessman who, naturally, seeks to make a certain profit on his return and the city is not in the business of giving away tax considerations. However, as just one local sports fan, I feel a bit ashamed.

Lutherans Complete Parley

This annual pastoral conference of the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod represents more than 220 congregations from this area.

Charles Manske, Lutheran Campus Pastor at the University of Southern California.

Also Dr. Wm. Oesch of Frankfurt, Germany spoke of how the Lutheran Free Church in Europe is meeting the social and religious crisis on the continent.

The Rev. Graeme Rosenau of Mt. Olive Lutheran Church, La Mirada, gave a New Testament exposition of how the early Christians overcame the problems of their time and proclaimed the "Good News" of Christ as the Redeemer for time and eternity.

Church Opens Capitol Center

Faced with growing manpower shortages in many of its institutions and mission fields, the Seventh-day Adventist Church is laying plans for a manpower resources center in Washington, D.C.

The center will gather information on skilled Adventist personnel anywhere in North America and will provide inquiring church organizations with specific suggestions. It is anticipated that information will be computerized for efficiency in serving the church's 70 conferences and 1,099 institutions in the U. S. and Canada.

The Statistical Department of the church reports that nearly 22,000 workers are employed in Adventist institutions in North America. This does not include ministers or conference workers, who will also be included in the files of the Manpower Resources Center.

Church Editor Charges Murder

WASHINGTON, D.C. — "We label many deaths as suicide because we are too chicken to own up to the real reasons," a Seventh-day Adventist churchman charged.

Don F. Neufeld, associate editor of his church's weekly, published the comment in reference to his editorial called "Traffickers in the Souls of Men." The Review and Herald, published here, will carry the message in its November 13 issue.

"Many suicides are not suicide cases at all," he said, "but murders." Neufeld nailed drug, alcohol, and tobacco industries specifically.

The editor asked, "Can we say that drunk drivers who kill themselves and others on the highways have just had an 'accident'? Wasn't it really murder by those who manufacture and market liquor? And what about those who pass laws protecting the industry? Do they have a responsibility for this predetermined slaughter on the highways?"

Neufeld said similar questions and conclusions might be drawn about heart attack victims whose vital organ failed because of damage by tobacco.

He described the merchants of such products as "modern traffickers in the souls of men." And those who succumb to their products are merchandised through covetousness," he said.

The editor expressed the opinion that it is the business of the church to help avert such "murders."

His own church prohibits the use of tobacco or alcoholic beverages by its members. It also conducts a strong program of health education including the Five-Day Plan to Stop Smoking which has helped thousands of Americans to break the tobacco habit.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Have you ever heard of a cold soup that originated in Spain? Is there such a thing and, if so, what are the contents for it?

There is a delightful "sopa fria" (cold soup) enjoyed by most Spaniards. It is called "gazpacho" by the natives and there is no English translation for the name other than "cold soup."

Cold soup may not sound very appetizing to the average American but it is a delight in Spain. On warm summer days most Spaniards look forward to the noon meal which begins with "gazpacho."

The most important ingredient is "pepino" (cucumber) which is liquified in an electric blender. Small chopped pieces of "ajo" (garlic), a little "pimienta" (pepper), a bit of "vinagre" (vinegar), some thin sliced raw "tomates" (tomatoes), and a drop or two of "aceite de aceitunas" (olive oil) make up the balance of ingredients for this delightful cool soup.

UC Obtains Rare Book Collection

The Romero Collection, the most important single acquisition since the Renaissance library of Don Cameron Allen, has been received by the Library at the University of California, San Diego.

The library of Senor Miguel Romero Martinez of Seville, Spain, arrived in 25 large wooden crates and held a few surprises. The library staff looked for the treasures they knew would be inside — 15 incunabula (books printed before 1501 A.D.), about a dozen manuscript books, a large collection of classical writings and a fine library of Spanish books.

However, they also found that each volume was not only an important book of scholarship but a work of art as well. The majority of the books are in excellent condition and bound in vellum with gothic letters on the spine or in elegant leather and gilt bindings. Some are encased in handsome individual boxes.

The Romero Collection was obtained by UCSD largely through the efforts of Dr. Claudio Guillen, Professor of Spanish and Comparative Literature on the campus, who had lived in the Romero house as a boy. Part of the purchase funds were contributed by the Del Amo Foundation.

The Romero Collection contains 4,100 volumes and is especially strong in Latin works of classical authors printed during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries, many of which are rarely found today.

There are also many books on Spanish history, literature and culture, from the Middle Ages until modern times but with the greatest concentration on the seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth centuries.

There are many works dealing with the local history of Seville and Andalusia and of the Peninsular War from the Spanish point of view. French and Italian literature is also represented.

A few of the outstanding volumes are: Pliny "the Elder," Natural Hystoria, Venice, 1483; the Latin Bible of 1483, Venice, and another of 1491, Basel; Valerius Maximus, Facta ac dicta memorabilia, Venice, 1485; Flavius Josephus, Antiquitates Judaeae, Venice, 1486; Cornelius Nepos, De vita excellentium imperatorum, Brescia, 1498; and Stephanus Brulefer, Opuscula, Paris, 1500.

ART - MUSIC - THEATRE

Vocal Group Salutes Heritage of Blacks

From the first slave days at Jamestown in 1619 to the Civil Rights marches of the 1960's, the American Negro has expressed his emotions in song. Voices, Inc. brings this rich heritage to San Diego for the first time in a presentation of "The Beauty of Blackness," to be held at 8:30 p.m. on Saturday, November 22, in the Gymnasium at the University of California, San Diego.

Now in its eighth year, Voices, Inc. is a repertory company of 12 singer-actors who have gained international acclaim for their unique manner of depicting the sounds and feelings of Negro life, past and present, through music, song, dance and narrative.

Lauded by theatre critics for their 300-performance Off-Broadway production of "The Believers" last year, the Voices group also was the subject of an hour-long CBS television network special, recorded an RCA Victor original cast album and took its repertoire on a national tour.

"The Beauty of Blackness," researched and written, as well as performed, by Voices, Inc., is "the story of the Negro's freedom struggle in song." Act one traces the history of the black man from his homeland in Africa to slavery in America.

African chants and dances, field hollers and spirituals express the innermost thoughts and desires of the Negro as he attempts to maintain his dignity and humanity.

Act two depicts the end of the Civil War, when the end of slavery in America was achieved.

College Slates Kate

complied but not the beginning of freedom for the black man. Blues, jazz and gospel are used by the Voices in this act to show the frustrations of being black and half-free in the world today.

The program is being presented by the UCSD Committee for Arts and Lectures and the La Jolla Museum of Art. Tickets are $4 for general admission and may be obtained at the UCSD Box Office in the lobby of Urey Hall.

Japanese Prints Now On Display

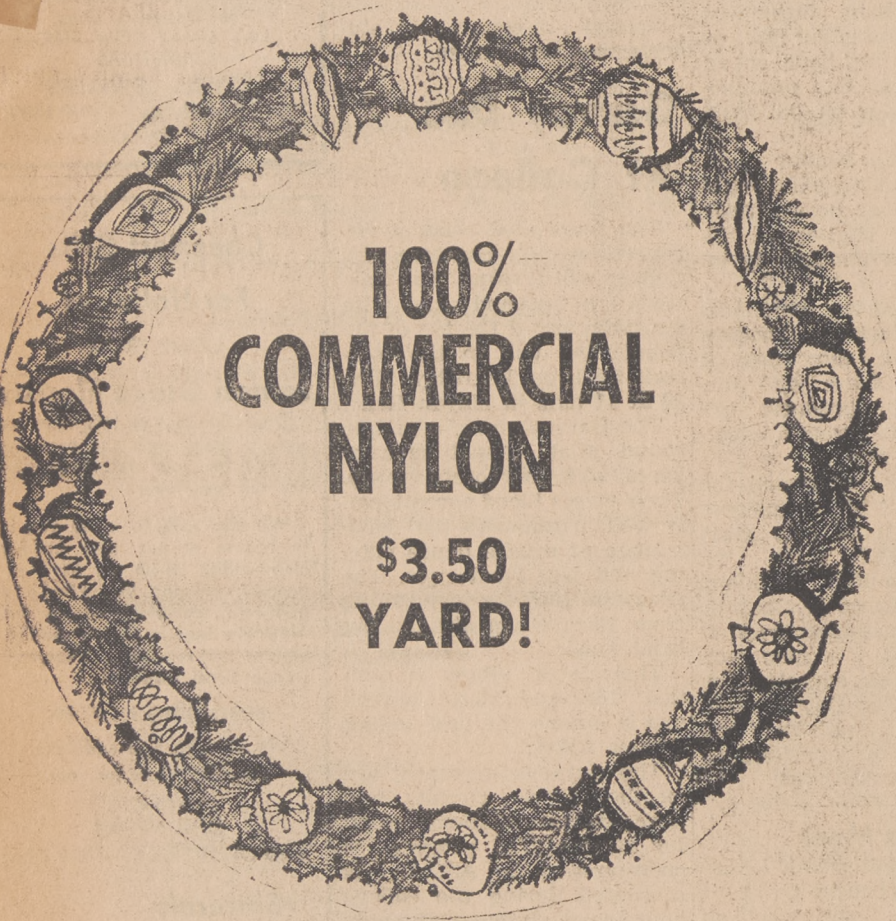

An exhibition of prints by the contemporary Japanese artist, Sadao Watanabe, will be on view now to January 4 at the Fine Arts Gallery in Balboa Park. The prints are from the collection of Mrs. M. M. Shinn. The show is sponsored by the Asiatic Arts Committee.

Sadao Watanabe is one of Japan's leading print artists today. He is Christian and uses Biblical subjects in his prints and yet remains Japanese in his aesthetic approach to his theme by employing folk craft technique. His method of producing a print is borrowed from Okinawan textile dying.

Watanabe has received numerous prizes and his work is in the collections of art museums in Japan and America. The New York Museum of Modern Art, the Japanese Folk Craft Museum, the Carnegie Art Museum, the Cincinnati Art Museum all have examples of his work.

In 1958, Watanabe was awarded first prize in the Exhibition of Contemporary Japanese Prints held in New York.

The deployment, scheduled for seven months, has been cut back due to the recent military setback. The twenty-five year old Bexar is included in the list of ships to be inactivated.

CURTIS LINTVEDT

Naval Aviation Officer Candidate Curtis O. Lintvedt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold M. Lintvedt of 6891 Central ave., Lemon Grove, has made his first solo flight.

The flight was made in a T34 "Mentor" trainer after five months of intensive academic, military, and physical training, including one month of Primary Flight Training with Training Squadron One at Saultfield Field, Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

The "Mentor" is the military version of the civilian Beechcraft "Bonanza." He will continue on to more advanced phases of his flight training for approximately 13 months before receiving his pilot's "Wings of Gold."

TONY VADOPALAS

Navy Lieutenant Anthony S. Vadopalas, husband of the former Miss Mary E. Barrett of 8401 Roy st., Lemon Grove, is serving aboard the amphibious transport ship USS Denver with the Pacific First Fleet.

equipment of a Marine battalion can be rapidly flown to combat areas ashore. Simultaneously, assault landing craft, loaded with combat supplies, can be launched from the ship's submerged well deck.

Tactical deployment of this large number of assault troops and equipment combines missions previously requiring several different types of amphibious ships.

The Denver is also equipped with modern medical facilities allowing it to perform as a personnel casualty receiving ship.

It is scheduled for a Western Pacific deployment in the near future.

Described as the "most complete communications effort in the retail gasoline business," the convention previewed service station marketing possibilities for the 1970's.

Displays, panel discussions and question-and-answer sessions gave dealers the opportunity to improve business skills and learn of new techniques and products.

A unique feature of the conclave was a two-way dialogue between Mobil marketing executives and the dealers concerning the means of improving business relationships and the ironing out of any specific problems.

Harvey Chosen For Miguel Dramatists

Mount Miguel's Drama Department will present the first ASB production, Harvey, November 20 and 21.

Harvey needs no introduction. It was written by Mary Chase and is one of the most popular and entertaining comedies ever to leave the Broadway stage. It was also made into a very successful motion picture, starring James Stewart.

The story concerns Elwood P. Dowd who is a middle-aged bachelor who likes liquor and company, which is how he meets Harvey, a six-foot rabbit.

Elwood meets Harvey leaning against a lamp post, they begin to talk and from that point forward they became inseparable. Harvey is not only confined to Elwood, but once accepted is made a friend with Veta, Elwood's widowed sister.

David Mills, who has never played lead in a play, portrays Elwood. Marianne Dawes, a alumnae who has come back especially for this play, will be Veta. Myrtle Mae, Veta's daughter who is looking for a husband, is played by Mary Cook. The play is being directed by John Adams, drama advisor.

Hillers Hit Early, Beat Miguel, 26-0

Grossmont's lightning-like thrusts all but buried Mt. Miguel's dwindling Grossmont League title hopes Friday night as the Foothillers won, 26-0.

In what was considered a toss-up, the Foothillers quickly salted away the contest behind a pair of long touchdown runs by sophomore halfback Larry Olson.

Olson, the speed in the Foothill attack, put the game out of reach early when he sailed 83 and 78 yards on a pair of scoring plays in the opening minutes.

He tacked on another score in the second period, gathering in a 34-yard pass from quarterback Matt Fehl.

A 77-yard touchdown run by Phil Allen was nullified. Otherwise, the Foothillers were surprisingly ineffective. They totaled 366 yards total offense, but 280 of that came on the four scoring plays. They were out first-downed, 8-4.

The win put Grossmont into a tie with Granite Hills for the loop lead, both with 5-1 records.

Miguel is tied for third with Santana, both with 4-2 marks. Either team could theoretically tie for first if both Grossmont and Granite Hills stumble this week.

But that's a tall order. Granite Hills, an erratic, often-brilliant team, has only El Cajon left. The Braves won their first league game against Monte Vista last week.

Grossmont has only to defeat arch-rival Helix. The Highlanders have also only won a single game.

El Capitan, the only other team in title consideration sank out of sight with a 3-3 mark. They lost a 22-21 thriller to Granite Hills.

Miguel, meanwhile, has Monte Vista left. The Monarchs, which started off so well, have not been the same since losing halfback Vince Campoli with a knee injury.

If Grossmont and Granite Hills end up in a tie, it's likely the Eagles will advance to the County playoffs. They beat the Hillers, 14-6, in their meeting.

75 Grand Purse

RIVERSIDE—A guaranteed purse of $75,000, the second largest on the C. S. Auto Club's famed "Championship Trail," has been posted by Riverside International Raceway for its Rex Mays 300 race December 7.

R.I.R. General Manager Roy Hord said manufacturers' accessory awards will boost the total purse to more than $85,000, making the race easily the richest championship car event outside of the Indianapolis 500.

Griff Harriers Win Loop Title

After waiting all season, Grossmont College's harriers finally sewed up their Mission Conference championship.

The Griff's had beaten main contender Southwestern, 24-31, early in the year, but had to wait until the season's end to lay claim to their title.

They disposed of rivals Citrus (27-30) and Chaffey (15-48) in a double-dual meet Friday at Grossmont.

Brent Wilson showed the way, running the four-mile course in 20:30.

Joe Mears was fifth (20:49), Neil Wilson was sixth (20:56) and Danny Matheny seventh (20:56).

NAMED COACH—Charlie Waller, backfield coach, was named head coach of the San Diego Chargers Monday in a surprise announcement by Sid Gillman. Gillman, after 10 years of being head coach and general manager of the team since the AFL's beginning, was advised by his doctor to step down as field general. He'll stay on as general manager.

Roger Drummond and Ray Santos.

Rendina is a Grossmont High graduate while Drummond is from Mt. Miguel High and the others are all former Monte Vista High standouts.

Matador Gals Drown Henry

Mt. Miguel's girl swimmers dunked Patrick Henry in a non-league match Monday at Carman Ranch.

The Matadors won the overall scoring, 122-73, and dominated the A division by 44-15.

MV Slump Continues El Cajon Wins, 13-6

By SCOTT MCGAUGH

Monte Vista's gridders suffered their sixth straight defeat last Friday, as the Monarchs were downed by the El Cajon Braves, 13-6.

A dull first half, neither squad could maintain any momentum in the scoreless first two quarters.

The Monarchs then drove early in the third period and scored on a nine-yard run by Tony Harper to put Monte Vista out in front, 6-0.

The Braves then scored on the final and highly-argued play of the third period.

With no time left on the scoreboard, Speedee Chase darted five yards for a touchdown as the gun went off. Although Monte Vista argued that time had run out, the officials ruled that until the gun went off, a play already started was valid.

Jim Lovell then clinched the win with 1:10 left in the game as he went 10 yards for a Brave score.

Monte Vista is now 1-5 and will travel to Mount Miguel this Friday for the season finale.

The Monarch cross country squad is now within one win of its fifth cross country title in six years.

The Monarchs ran away from El Cajon, 19-44, in Monte Vista's sixth straight win.

The Varsity took seven of the first eight places while the Junior Varsity and Frosh won also, 16-47, and 18-45, respectively.

The Monarchs can clinch their title tomorrow as they travel to Mt. Miguel to take on the Matadors in the season finale.

Monarch Runners Near Loop Crown

Monte Vista High School is near another Grossmont League cross-country championship.

The Monarchs, who have won four league titles in the last five years, can wrap up this year's pennant tomorrow if they can beat Mt. Miguel.

They've put themselves in this position by last week dumping El Cajon, 19-44, and breezing through the remainder of the league meets unbeaten.

But beating Miguel will not be an easy task. The Matadors led by senior Gary Heiserman and sophomore Joe Stubbs, are the third-best team in the league. They demonstrated their depth last week with 17-46 trouncing of Grossmont.

A stumble by the Monarchs would put the league into a three-way tie with the two Spring Valley teams deadlocking with Helix.

Helix, a 15-50 winner over Santana last week, was a one-point loser to Monte Vista early this season and will be prohibitive favorite tomorrow against Grossmont.

Junior Tom Lux toured the Monte Vista course in 10:04 as the Monarchs captured seven of the first eight places against the Braves.

Cajon's Leo Nicolet was second in 10:11, but the Monarchs swept the next six places.

Miguel's Heiserman won his race in 9:18 on his home course, leading a Miguel sweep of the first three places against Grossmont.

Stubbs was second in 9:24 and Flynn Barnett was third in 9:26. After a Grossmont runner was fourth, Miguel harriers were in the next four positions.

Helix wiped out Santana. Ed Mendoza, the junior standout, ran 9:43, a course record, and Highlanders swept the top seven positions.

Dennis Rodgers and Robin Schultz were among the leaders of the green-and-white pack.

Gulls On Road

SEATTLE — The San Diego Gulls finish a tough four-game road trip with games here against the Seattle Totems tomorrow night and in Portland against the league-leading Buckaroos on Saturday night.

Following the road trip, the Gulls will return home to face the Denver Spurs next Wednesday in what should be a very special night. It will be the Gulls' third Birthday Celebration, plus the second half of the team's November Ladies Night Special.

There will be gifts and surprises galore for fans in attendance at Wednesday's game, plus special treats for the Ladies Night guests. Three ladies will be selected to participate in the Ladies Night puck shoot, with a free trip to Phoenix for two with the Gulls as the prize.

The road stretch will be a vital one. The Gulls have games in hand on every team except Salt Lake, but will use up some of their extra games on this trip.

Despite the intense heat more than 600 different kinds of plants grow in Death Valley, Calif.

Brazilians See Miguel

Many of Mt. Miguel's classes were visited by two Brazilian professors, Tuesday, October 28.

Professor Alberto Stange Junior, from Victoria and Emanuel Brandao Funes, from Belo Horizonte, visited Mt. Miguel to observe the types of schools that give vocational training as well as academic studies.

When asked how they liked Mt. Miguel, Professor Funes replied that he was amazed at the size of the school and how spread out it was, because schools in Brazil are in several storied buildings.

The professors visited many classrooms including Mrs. Ona Elliott's U. S. History class, Dr. Seth Carpenter's U. S. History class, the art class, metal shop class, auto shop, and the music department, where they listened to the beginning band the girls' ensemble. They enjoyed the music department the best.

Professor Funes and Professor Funes do not speak fluent English, but are able to understand it. The languages they do speak are Portuguese and a little Spanish. Along with them was interpreter Virginia Salmon.

Open Drops Ducat Cost

Here's a switch to the inflationary pattern! The Los Angeles Open is reducing the price of season ticket to $10 for the 44th edition of the $100,000 golf tournament, which is scheduled January 7-11 at Rancho Park Golf Course.

The tab on season tickets for the last LA Open was $12, according to chairman Mark Walsh, of the sponsoring Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The season ticket is good for all five days of pro, including the pro-amateur prelude, and is also good for the practice days. It represents a big savings over individual daily admission tabs.

Bavasi, who spent 30 years as an executive with the Brooklyn and Los Angeles Dodgers organization before taking the leadership of the San Diego Padres during the past season, now makes his home in San Diego.

During his career with the Dodgers, Bavasi's teams won eight national league pennants and four World Series. He was named executive of the year in 1948 when he was general manager of the Dodgers' Montreal farm club and again in 1959 when he was general manager of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Griffs Sparkle In 55-0 Win

After three last-second come-from-behind victories in a row, the Grossmont Griffins finally put one away early, with a 55-0 thrashing of San Bernardino Valley College Friday night.

The verdict was never in doubt, as Grossmont scored four of the first five times it had the ball in running up a 34-0 halftime advantage.

Greg Gleason was magnificent in victory with 13 completions in 15 attempts for 221 yards and six touchdowns. The 221 yards in one game puts Greg third in the all-time Griffins record book for most yards in a single game behind two Brian Spifeffs in 1967.

Six touchdown passes puts Gleason on top of the list, as no Griffin passer has ever approached that figure in a single contest.

The entire Griffin offense sparked, with the rushing game sound for the second game in a row and the team passing record of 18 completions in 29 attempts for 279 yards.

The 474 total offensive yards placed the team fourth in the Grossmont record book behind a 523 yard effort against Cypress in 1967 and two 476 yard efforts, one in 1963 and one in 1966.

Chargers Ink Rookie End

The San Diego Chargers announced the signing of Gene Huey, a rookie wide receiver and defensive back.

Huey, 5-foot-10, 190 pounds, from Wyoming, was drafted No. 5 by the St. Louis Cardinals this year. He was released by the Cardinals, signed by the Minnesota Vikings and released last week by the Vikings.

"We had Huey rated very highly in the draft," said Charger general manager Sid Gillman.

Gillman said there is a possibility that Huey will be activated for Sunday's game against the Raiders at Oakland.

The Chargers lost another receiver for the year Sunday when Richard Trapp suffered a ruptured spleen. He underwent surgery Monday for removal of the spleen.
